

In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money changers seated at their tables. Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables.

Help Needed

Many thanks to Nancy Kelley for stepping forward to coordinate our all-church fundraiser at the end of March. We need volunteers to sign up to donate goods for sale and give of their time to staff one of the three concession sites we are operating for the March 28-29 basketball tournament in Middletown. See the sign up sheet in church for more info.
