

Jefferson United Methodist Church Weekly Newsletter

SUNDAY, MAY 3, 2009

Once again this year, we will be hosting Korean pastors. They will be staying with Chris and Sarah Schlieckert May 27-31. If you would like to invite our guests to join in some event so they can better understand our culture, contact Pastor Sarah.

WORSHIP HELP!

The Worship committee has lots of exciting things planned for the coming weeks—but we need your help to make it all happen. Please check out the needs and info below and let us know if you can help!

- For Mother's Day (May 10), do you have a favorite poem about mother to share?
- Remember to wear RED on Pentecost (May 31).
- We will celebrate our graduates on June 7. Please let us know the names and school of graduates.
- June 21 will be Pastor Sarah's last Sunday.
- We would like to have a special day of celebrating the ministry and gifts of the congregation in worship on Sunday, June 28. Would you be willing to help lead that service? Have ideas?

The Mundays have moved!

MANY THANKS to those who give generously of their time and skills! This week, we want to especially thank:

ALL WHO CAME OUT FOR THE CLEAN UP DAY at church, especially the Trustees for coordinating the work. A great deal of cleaning was completed on the ground floor.

CONGRATULATIONS to FRANK AND JENNY HOFFMASTER as they celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary.

Have a note of thanks to share? E-mail it to Pastor Sarah.
